Commodore's Report

PBYC has been packed with fun parties and awesome events and of course wonderful camaraderie. June was filled with lots of sailing and even more planning for upcoming events. The Race for the Roses Committee has been having lots of fundraisers to help support the event for yet another year! Dave and LeAyn Dunbar defended B-Class in Challenge Cup and you guessed it, they won!!!! Of course they are not the only recent winners from PBYC. Most recently our very own Rob Fair has become the first one and only undefeated multihull sailor at PBYC!! Yes you heard me right; he is undefeated even sailing against Captain Kirk!!! Many thanks have to go out to Mike and Andrea Pedersen, and Jason Knoll for hosting a wonderful Patriots Day Regatta!! Good times were had by all! I strongly encourage each and every team to follow in their footsteps and host a regatta this year. As they and everyone else who has done it will tell you, it truly is a fun experience! Keep your eyes open for some upcoming potential by-law changes and updates that we will have for you in the next Spreader. I look forward to seeing all of you at PBYC this Summer!

Fleet Captain's Report

Aloha Fellow Members,

Our Challenge Cup Team earned its keep this past weekend but fell short of victory. Our sailors fought hard for a credible fifth place out of ten yacht clubs. My hat goes off to Black Ice, skippered by JP Knoll, Tryptonite, skippered by Dave Dunbar, Rogue Tripp, skippered by David Eames, and Reach Around, skippered by Jeff Hunt. DJ, our team captain, and all the crewmembers put much effort into climbing the ladder. Let's hope for a podium finish next year.

On Saturday while we were sailing for the Challenge Cup, Kirk Newkirk participated in the annual Round the Island Race out of FWYC. Skippering his NACRA C 20 with Bert Jr. as crew, they missed their record from last year by fifteen minutes, but won overall. Kirk said they finally got their navigation right but had to tack 'a hundred times' after Navarre. They earned their keep as well. Mahalo to Mark Smith for serving as their ground chief and safety boat.

Mike Pedersen and the other 'Little Wickeds' are planning a robust weekend of fun for the Patriots Day Regatta. Let's hope the weather provides sunny skies and challenging winds.

The Planning Committee for our annual Race for the Roses Regatta is working earnestly on making this year's event special. Our Committee includes Ellen Hunt (Chair), Karen Kriegel, and Julie Connerley. Please contact one of them if you wish to participate as a crewmember or contribute to the regatta preparation.

Let's hope that our winds hold true for the remainder of our sailing year. For individual race results please select the desired regatta in the Racing Schedule link. Using the electronic registration is a time saver over phone tag. Please help your Race Committee volunteers serve you. Our 'big' events are coming, so join us at PBYC and share the adventure and spirit.

Share the Sea,
Bert Rice

Rear Commodore's Report

Lots of sailing and parties for PBYC in June. The Challenge Cup party was a great success. Shrimp, pasta salad, and oh my God.....the crab dip! Obviously a huge hit at the bar as Larry and Joe S. were gobbling it down! Will certainly keep that little dish in mind for upcoming events. Thanks to our Commodore for the use of the house for the after race party. There were burgers and dogs, pasta salad, and a brisket to die for!! Thanks to all those who brought dishes to share. Those of you who didn't make it certainly missed out!

Next on the agenda was our Race for the Roses Italian Dinner night. Lasagna, baked ziti, spaghetti and meatballs, the list goes on. Thanks to all who slaved over a hot stove to make this an awesome event! Ellen.....Jeff says he made all the meatballs himself.

Last but not least was the Patriot's Day Regatta! Great food, great trophies, and even better camaraderie at the after party. Thanks to Jason Knoll and Mike and Andrea Pedersen for a job well done! And a special thanks to Andrea for the birthday rum cake. DELICIOUS!!!

Coming up in July..... more of the same. 4th of July this Wednesday. Come by the club for fireworks and great fun. Wednesday the 11th and 18th, the Race for the Rose's crew will be putting together a wing and/or taco night. Look out for the emails with the details.

Blue Angel weekend we will have our friends from PYC rafting up for a potluck weekend with dinner on Saturday and brunch on Sunday. PYC will supply the entree' for dinner and for those of you with hang-overs on Sunday.....they will have the champagne and bloody marys. Bring your favorite dish to share and come out for a fun filled weekend. And that's only the first half of July. Guys....get ready to support your ladies during the Bikini Cup Regatta on the 21st and the 25th anniversary Race for the Rose's on the 28th.

PBYC/Key Sailing Junior Sailing Camp August 6th to the 10th, 2012

The camp promises to be full of sailing activities for ages 7-14. Kids must know how to swim. Preparations are being made for another fantastic camp. We are adding a different venue for part of the camp at Shoreline Park. Please be signing up those friends and relatives you want to include in camp this year, space is plentiful for now. As days roll by so does space in camp and you don't want anyone to miss the opportunity for this camp. Go to pensacolabeach-yc.org click on the Junior Sailing link for application and info. Thanks folks.
