August 3rd, Race for the Roses... details from Fleet Captain

YES, it's Christmas in July! Mark your calendar for our PBYC Christmas party. Saturday, December 14th at Hemingways. Erica Bush, Chair.

Behind the Scenes ...

Seven years ago, a mindful Board of Directors created a PBYC Board of Advisors. The Board of Advisors purpose is "to assure continuity of purpose from one year's officers to the next". Duties are outlined in our by-laws. Our current BOA consists of Ken Branch (KB), Chair, David Johnson (DJ), Al Greene, and original BOA members Joe Hammons and Glen Windham. We thank these five for the depth and knowledge they add to our organization.

Next on the list: Every time you see a change of Club décor, several things happen. The Rear Commodore or Committee Chair calls Steve Headley and says, "Help, I need the decorations brought from the storage unit". Steve goes to the storage unit, roots around and comes up with the chosen box which he then transports to PBYC. Several days pass before Steve gets the 2nd call... " Gee, Steve, can you take all these other boxes back to the storage unit." And so it goes all year, year to year...

As you see the seasons change, tell Steve thanks. And on another note, last year I asked Steve when PBYC was incorporated.... He had a copy of the incorporation papers (1982) in his truck. He is truly the keeper of all things PBYC. Thanks!!

Another PBYC hero is our Spreader Editor, Mike Douglas. The Spreader doesn't just fall out of the sky. Mike reminds all contributors every month to get articles in. He then adds it all together and posts it on the PBYC website. I can't guess how long he has done this without a glitch. His motto is "CAN DO".

And as if he hadn't a thing to do, Mike is also our Webmaster. You want it fixed, updated, changed, etc. "CAN DO". Thanks!!

A lot of things happen behind the scenes at "The best little yacht club on the Gulf".

Thanks to all.
Anne Geisel, Commodore

Taste of South Carolina - Low Country Boil

On July 20, please mark your calendars for a Taste of South Carolina – a Low Country Boil. Also known as Frogmore Stew, this one-pot wonder was created by a National Guardsman when he needed to cook a meal for 100 soldiers. Richard Gay, who learned the recipe from his family, had everyone remembering his stew. The dish was later named Frogmore, where Richard was from, by the guards who teased him about home. (excerpt from Coastal Living). Will also have some tasty desserts to savor after the LCB. Cost is $10.00 per person.

On Sunday, July 21, at noon, Paddle Boarding in Little Sabine. Hopefully, this will become a Sunday afternoon event. Any other water enthusiasts are welcome..kayaks, lasers, etc....anything that floats.

- Sheila Jackson, Rear Commodore-elect

Fleet Captain's Report

As you are reading this the Patriot's Day event will be history; all indications are that it will be a huge celebration. Thank you, Mike P, Andrea and Jason for being the sponsors/hosts for this event!

Our drinking team had a sailing problem at the 2013 Challenge Cup in Gulfport, Mississippi. Of course, I am kidding about that, although our results were mediocre.

My Sharona ended up 4th in Class A, Tripptonyte was 3rd in Class B, and the Melges 20 was low-mid-pack in Class C; sadly we could not muster a Class D boat. We had a good party for the team and all is good.

Typically, July is the Ladies Sailboat racing month in our area. Several of our excellent lady sailors will be racing in the GYA Women's Championships at PYC, the Bikini Regatta at NYCP in the middle of the month and of course, our Race for the Roses event in early August.

I am certain that we will have a big, fun time on the Air Show weekend as our PYC neighbors will come over to raft-up and party with the fun crowd at our club. I can hardly wait.

Remember that it is dues renewal time with a July 15th deadline. Come out and support the "The best little yacht club on the Gulf"!

Tim Simmon's Retirement Party

Three old friends, Carol Robison, Carol Headley and Dianne Taylor decided to host a wonderful retirement party for Tim Simmons. The ladies at PBYC created a scrumptious buffet and Tim received some appropriate gag gifts like a sand bucket and shovel and a cane plus a collection of nice and funny cards. We hope that he will enjoy his retirement and decides soon to be very active again. Where better than at PBYC!
