What I Learned.....

Did I learn about Robert's Rules, did I learn about PBYC By-laws, about how to right a turtled Sunfish, about budgets...oh yeah.

Anything new is a learning experience. I never said I knew it all - I relied on club members, Board members, friends. And I thank all of those Board members, Advisory Board members, club members and friends for their contributions.

In two weeks, we hold elections to name our 2014 Executive Board. These people VOLUNTEER to take on these positions. They do it out of respect for PBYC, not for the BIG BUCKS.

So as we head for the next year, please step forward to thank them, help them, appreciate them. Then hoist your sails and drink rum.

Rear Commodore's Report

The Psychedelic 60's party was a lot of fun; groovy 60's attire and cool music. We had a decent turnout and danced and ate pizza, salad and dessert. Hope this will become an annual event. We'll see...

The Halloween Party on October 26 had a variety of costumes from scary to sexy to who was that masked man... The party coincided with a race event so the club had a busy day and evening...which was good. Thanks to everyone for bringing soups and munchies. Pasty Mellon was a scary witch and won for best costume.

The next event is Art & Wine on Sunday, November 10. Corrie will be providing additional information on this event. The Christmas Party is December 14 from 6:30 to 11:00 at Hemingways. Look for more info soon.
