Board of Advisors Addition

The PBVC Executive Board unanimously elected Tim Simmons to serve on the Board of Advisors. As per by-laws, Tim will be seated as an Advisor after this announcement has been published.

The Best of the Past (year)

Of all the high points of 2013, a very special regatta rates high on the list. The Escambia and Santa Rosa County coordinator for Special Olympics asked if PBYC and Key Sailing would help them do a regatta to raise awareness of (and funds for) Special Olympics.

As in every new regatta, planners ask what is the format, who does what, who sails, what is it called?

It is called the Pensacola Paradise Regatta, and I can assure you it is HERE TO STAY.

A group of Hobie 16 catamarans raced with one owner/skipper and one Special Olympian on board. The smiles as they rounded the marks would make you proud. There was a trophy for every entrant, a hamburger cook-out, and awards at PBYC.

To round out the fleet, every multihull on the Key Sailing beach was rigged and manned, some with two on board and some with one on board. Lisa Sharp and I were a team to be reckoned with...oh, well, maybe not so much.... Look for scores from our Fleet Captain. Highlights of the fund raising effort were the silent auction items. I will leave you with a chuckle... Key Sailing donated a parasailing trip while 30 wings were donated along with it. Will Berry won the bidding with a note from Kirk Newkirk to parasail before eating the 30 wings.

A great event that we can't wait to host in 2014.
