Fleet Captain's Report

Happy New Year to all, hope this is the best year for everyone. The first race for PBYC is the Frost Bite on Jan 18th, notice is up. We will also have 3 upper level events this year, the GYA Womens Championship, Performance Nationals, and the Wave N.A.s. We will of course need some volunteers help for both on the water and club activities. I will get a sign up sheet to be kept in the office. Let's have lots of fun this year and good luck to all.

Mardi Gras 2014

Happy New Year to all who read this. Mardi Gras should be easy this year depending on the condition of the float. We keep the same theme as last year and the same outfits, a blue blazer, white pants and captains hat complete the outfit.

I'm hoping to have a Committee meeting on January 8th at 6:30 PM at the club and the Chili Cook Off on the Friday of the Frost Bite Skippers' Meeting at 6:00 PM. Tasting and jury will take place before the Skippers' Meeting. Award after the meeting. Start planning ahead to come up with the perfect recipe!

The brunch is scheduled for February 9 at 10:30 AM and tickets will be $15.00 including champagne / Mimosas. Spread the word!!!

The Parade is on March 2nd and should be a ton of fun as usual!

Please let me know if you would like to participate in the parade or if you can help set up the float, help with the cook off or help with the brunch.

Thanks in advance and hope to see you at the meeting!
