Commodore's Report

Is everyone else as sick of the cold as I am! February started out with a great Super Bowl party with an impressive turn out of people and food. I have never seen so much food at the yacht club! Thank you so much to all who contributed their time and money to make the night so great. It was a crappy game but the food was top notch. The following Sunday we had a great Mardi Gras brunch with around 70 people in attendance. Again, a huge outpouring of support from the Mardi Gras Committee and our members. Tons of delicious food and champagne was enjoyed by all. My favorite was the 25 pound roast that Jason Knoll brought. Andrea managed to sell the remaining food to some delighted customers. The Valentines Regatta was a long, great light air battle with 12 boats participating. The Skippers' Meeting attendees enjoyed chocolate covered strawberries and other sweet treats. Tryptonite took home the big goodie basket for the Spinnaker Class, and Sunset Raider took home the Non-spin spoils. Everyone enjoyed Genella's sloppy joes, and more chocolate strawberries and delicious brownies. Kriss had a great movie night on Tuesday the 25th with 20 people in attendance. They all enjoyed a movie and pizza for only $5! She plans to do another one next week.

The Mardi Gras beach parade is this Sunday. The Pensacola Midwinters Catamaran Regatta will take place on March 22-23 and will likely have a Hobie Wave class.

Andrea Pedersen has graciously taken on another task as the webmaster for the yacht club. She has already made some changes and has many more improvements in the hopper. A heartfelt thanks goes out to Mike Douglas for handling this thankless job for so many years.

Fleet Captain's Report

Many thanks to all who participated in the Valentines Race. The weather was beautiful but the wind died shortly after the second start. We still ended up with a good number of boats. Thanks to Genella for the great food she cooked for the after race party which was once again a great one. Maxine #2 will be on 3/8/14 and the Cat Midwinters will be 3/22/14. Sunfish Mid-winters will be the week of 3/23. A lot of on the water activities for the month of March. Spring is just around the corner, we have a lot of Coast Guard literature on hand at the club for those who are interested.

See you on the water.

- Mark

Mardi Gras updates:

The Mardi Gras Brunch was a big success thanks to Jason Knoll, our number one chef, assisted by Kriss, Robin, Mike and Andrea, Wanda, Brandi, Kimi, Fred and Beth. The food was absolutely fantastic! Jason prepared a big roast beef and omelettes, there were shrimp, pancakes, ham, sausage, casseroles, danish, biscuits, fruit, gravy and all kinds of rolls. A feast for the eye and palate! We received many compliments and I would like to thank all that attended. Andrea found an innovative way to sell the extra shrimp, Mike learned to slice Roast Beef, Jason painted his toes and we all had a good time.

The Beach Parade is Sunday March 2nd and it's not too late to participate if you like. You are all welcome! New members, don't be shy and come join in the fun. email me at dutchick@aol.com or call 712-8756
