August 2014

Vice-Commodore

It's August and the dog days of summer are here! It's hot and muggy outside, so another good reason to come out and cool off at the club!

We're off to a great start with the Race for the Roses and GYA Womens' PHRF Championship held this past weekend. (I delayed publishing the Spreader so I could get the race results in this issue!) The food was awesome, the boat participation great, and the results - Champion!!

Thanks go out to Leigh Ann Holbrook for chairing the committee this year; Lisa Sharp for the great trophies and running the silent auction; Andrea Pedersen for an awesome tee shirt design and product; Brandy Whitehurst for much needed publicity. Thanks to Corrie Keich for a great baked ziti and a lot of help. My homemade lasagna was a hit! And all the food donated by Lilo's Italian Restaurant was incredible. I haven't heard so many compliments on the food in years. And a very special thanks goes to our Rear Commodore, Kimi Hammons, who worked every day- Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, decorating, setting up, cleaning up and supporting the event in all ways.

Rear Commodore's Report

July was a busy month at PBYC. Thanks to all that came out to support the "New Members Party"! It was a great Sunday afternoon at the club. Thanks to Mark Smith for an excellent job on the shrimp boil. I don't think anyone went home hungry.....or thirsty, thanks to Darlene. It was nice to meet some of the new members that I hadn't yet had an opportunity to meet.

I'm thinking about starting a new event....."Bingo or Bunko Night" to finish out the year. I've had several members show an interest in both. If you have a preference, let me know. Your input counts! Send me an email or look me up at the club. Let me know what you think.

When the weather begins to cool down, we'll also bring back a membership favorite - "Soup and Sunset" on Sunday afternoons. There's a lot going on at the club, so don't miss out on the fun. Your support matters.

Hope to see you at the club soon!

Kimi Hammons

We have an amazing group of Board Members, Officers, and Committee Members. Check out the link "The Board" under the Information Section on our website to see pictures of our dedicated team. PBYC's membership is like one big family. There are several opportunities for you to be more involved in this close group of individuals. Just to name a few: Race Committee, Party Planning, Membership Outreach, Junior Sailing, Event Fund Raisers to benefit great causes, Mardi Gras, Raft-Ups, Cook-off Competitions and much more... There is certainly something that you will enjoy doing and get to know your fellow members better at the same time. Every individual member's efforts and time contributions are directly related to the success of our club. We welcome new ideas for events or improvements to our processes as well, just let the Board know!

You will get the true value out of your membership, by what you put into it! Contact the respective Board Member or Committee Chair pertaining to your involvement interest, or just send an email to Andrea Zern Pedersen (andrea.zern@gmail.com).
