Coyote crew showing their holiday spirit at PYC's Santa Clause Regatta

Commodore's Report

Happy New Year! I hope everyone had a fun and safe holiday. Janis did an awesome job with the Christmas and New Years Eve parties! Everyone had a great time with the dirty santa game and the decorations were beautiful. The food was also great! The Hangover Regatta on New Years Day was more watching football and eating left overs than an actual "regatta", but everyone had a great time. If you have not already heard, we closed on the construction loan on 1/31! This is great news, and the major hurdle in the building process. George Gamble has agreed to bring his heavy equipment out to the property next week and get the land cleared for us. George's help will save us a ton of money!

Lisa has been hard at work with (among other things) selling all of the bricks. Last I heard she had raised almost $1000! The bricks are out of the way and we make a little money, win/win.

The first board meeting of the new year will be Tuesday January 12, at 6:30pm above Key Sailing. This is the meeting where we renew all of the committees, so if you are interested in helping or chairing a committee please attend. We also have a general membership meeting on January 14, at 7pm, location to be determined (see events calendar on the website for location update).
